A Message from our Wardens

What's next?

We have had a little time to absorb the news of Adam+ and Lori's upcoming retirement. We are all very happy for them and, while we are sad to see them leave, we know they are headed for a wonderful "next chapter"!

In keeping with standard Episcopal practice, between now and October 27th (the Lintons' last Sunday at CHS) we will be primarily focused on celebrating the Lintons' time with us and saying a proper farewell. A search committee will not be formed until after November 1st. But of course, you are wondering: what can we do now and what happens after Adam+ leaves?

The Reverend Canon Kelly O'Connell, Regional Canon for the Southern Region, will play an important on-going role in our transition. She has already met with the wardens and she will meet with the entire vestry in August. Her calm, confident manner put us at ease.

Based on her meetings with the wardens and vestry, she will find us candidates for a full-time interim rector position. The wardens will interview these candidates. Depending on how long this process takes, there is a possibility that we may have an interim rector lined up to start shortly after Adam+ departs.

The wardens have also met with Gail Smith+, our assisting priest, to discuss her future at CHS. She will act as a bridge-priest until an interim is in place, then as an assistant to the interim priest for an as yet undetermined amount of time.

Church of the Holy Spirit will be assigned a search consultant from the Diocese who will begin the transition process by leading the vestry in a retreat. The search consultant will work with the interim rector, search committee and vestry as we go through the process of finding our next rector. The entire congregation will participate in doing a self-study to facilitate creating a parish profile that will be used to introduce CHS to potential candidates.

Our parish must also undergo a Transition Review Survey which summarizes our financial health. This is an outside objective review of our finances and physical campus. This Transition Review Survey can be started at any time and we hope to start this soon. The report will be given to the vestry, the Diocese, and final candidates for Rector.

We've been advised that a search takes about 14 months on average. The wardens and vestry commit to open communication with the congregation throughout the process. It's an exciting time and it is also a time that calls for diligence and doing things thoroughly and well.

We welcome your questions and thoughts—and of course, your prayers.

Blessings always,

Cynthia & Melissa

STEWARDSHIP 2020...OUR TIME! Douglas W. Fromm

Once a year every year around this time, and into the fall, a word pops up in parishes here in Orleans and throughout the land. The word is Stewardship! It is a word that dates back to the Middle Ages and has evolved into a positive meaning of “careful and responsible management” of something entrusted into one’s care. In the Christian tradition stewardship refers to the way time, talent, and material wealth are used for the service of God through the ministries of the Church.

Here at the Church of the Holy Spirit that tradition is embraced in a vibrant and vital mission and multiple ministries. And we are not alone in this. Parishes worldwide are engaged in missions to proclaim the Reign of God, to minister to those in need, and to welcome those whom others would judge, shun or condemn. Surely we know that our world today is in need of such proclamation, service and hospitality in the manner of the One we call Christ.

The late Albert Schweitzer ended his renowned book “In Search of the Historical Jesus” with these words:

He comes to us as one unknown without a name as of old, by the lakeside he came to those who knew him not. He speaks to us the same word...follow thou me!

He sets us to the tasks he has to fulfill for our time...he commands and those who obey him... whether they be wise or simple...he will reveal himself...in the toils...the conflicts...the sufferings... which they shall pass through. And in an ineffable mystery they shall learn in their own experience who he is.

Jesus walked out of the Judean desert over two thousand years ago beginning his ministry. Today as in his own time he remains one who arouses interest, desire. And, as he called then...Follow Thou Me...He still calls...to follow and live into and out of His Galilean Vision for our world, our country, our homes here on Cape Cod and in this very parish family.

That vision has been entrusted to us; we are participating in something ancient, present and yet to come... the Reign of God. And, that is an awesome gift and responsibility. As followers of Christ we are part of something BIG!

Years ago, here on this corner of Monument Road and Route 28 there was a faithful band who caught that vision of something BIG...a treasure to be cared for lovingly and passed along to succeeding generations such as ours. The moment at hand those years ago was taken in hand; the day seized, a building built, The Church of the Holy Spirit consecrated for future generations for the likes of us. It is a “homing place” where the veil between heaven and earth is sometimes thin. Its walls hold memories we shall never let go for they embrace our tears and our laughter. It is a community that gives sanctuary where we are healed and held in faith...where we can find solitude and security...and yet a place where we are challenged and charged to living a life of values and visions worthy of Christ and honoring God.

Now it is our time! Our time to take careful and responsible management of the Galilean Vision given to us by Christ and the parish mission and ministries passed down to us so that in time we can pass them to the next generations.

IT IS STEWARDSHIP TIME FOR THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY SPIRIT!

GALLEY WEST ARTISAN GALLERY (GWAG) - Make-up Meeting - Sharyn Laughton, Sue Sasso, Donna Tavano

On Tuesday July 23rd, after braving tornados and heavy rain and wind, 16 parishioners joined us in the Fireplace Room for the Galley West Artisan Gallery (GWAG) informational session. We shared our vision and goals for this wonderful new opportunity with the group of interested artisans and had excellent questions and comments. There is some real interest and more work needs to be done, but we do want to move forward with this effort.

We know some of you were unable to attend the 7/23 meeting. So, you have another chance on Tuesday August 13th, 1:00 in the Fireplace room to learn more about this opportunity and also to receive the materials. Or contact Sue Sasso 508-255-1732 or email susansasso@hotmail.com or speak to Sharyn, Donna and Sue anytime.

“Art” is the creative result of our thoughts. The breath of talent in our parish that could be shared and sold in GWAG is mindboggling. We want to stress that ALL members, including our youth, who have some art form or creative talent are encouraged to join us and participate in this new opportunity to showcase and sell your work.

Your “Art” may be painting on all kinds of surfaces or photography or quilting or wood turning or furniture making/repurposing or knitting or sewing or writing or jewelry making or special garden vessels & arraignments or handmade ornaments, etc. etc. etc. The list is as long as our combined talents. You may only have a few items that could be combined with other artists for a one month period... or you might have a larger “body of work” that can be featured and included for more than one month. We want to be flexible and give everyone a chance to participate. So don't be bashful....share your talent and find a way to make this work for you and your wonderful “art”! COME JOIN US!

ARTIST OF THE MONTH— CHS Gallery in the Reception Room

This month's featured artist is Laura Baksa, Sculptor and Landscape Artist.

Like many artists I have two resumes - one for the practical way I have made a living since I graduated from school and one for my “art life” where I chronicle my path of experimenting with different media to produce an individual artistic vision. I graduated from Sweet Briar College in 1970 with a major in art history and minor in studio arts and soon discovered that I would have to venture out of the art world to support living in New York City. My second job was at Metropolitan Life Insurance company in the office design department which allowed me income to travel and study art and architecture on European trips. To allow more time for sculpture, I also was employed in antique shops, clothing boutiques and freelance artwork. It was a challenge to support studying at the Art Students League and apprenticing to NYC sculptor, Philip Pavia. With several other sculptors I rented studio space in his loft and produced sculptures in stone, fired clay and bronze, exhibiting in group shows along the way.

I moved to Cape Cod in 1979 and in my “practical” art life worked as a graphic artist a decade each for 3 newspapers: The Register, The Cape Codder and The Cape Cod Times, taking early retirement in 2011. Along the way there were stints free lancing with Cape Cod Life and Amidon Design for which I produced a sculpted replica of Prospect Hill Fortress for Seven Hills Train Station in Boston.

Since college I have been making my own artwork in my free time. I have been showing sculpture in New York, Boston and Cape Cod at various galleries including the Copley Society in Boston, Ariel Gallery in NYC and Berta Walker Gallery in Provincetown.

Since 2002 I have made the change from sculpture to functional art pieces for the garden. These have included stone pools both decorative and functioning as fish habitats. I have worked with private homeowners to construct pools and outdoor baths that incorporate marble and slate mosaic. I love the interplay of water with these materials.

Most recently, I have been studying medieval European ruins of castles and churches and creating my own stone “follies” or “ruins” inspired by these classic examples. They are the most fun of all and can be seen on my website: LauraBaksa.com. Or contact me at 508-385-5490 to talk more about my art and how I might be able to incorporate some of it in your own gardens.

THE FREE SHOP— Sharyn Laughton and Suzy Gray A message from Sharyn:

I am convinced that whatever ails you can be forgotten or at the very least “put to the side – forgotten – put in perspective” in the Free Shop! I worked this past Monday – I love to organize – I love to create a sense of order where customers can find what they are looking for – a happy space...music plays while customers shop.....not your ordinary customer – not your ordinary shop...everything is free! In the space of an afternoon many grateful people found clothing for themselves & family members – one Dad was so excited in finding a toy for his son – (yes, the Free Shop has toys, puzzles & books).....some families I knew & hugs were exchanged.....some helped sort clothing.....some dropped off donations.....some just came to visit – exchange stories.....and while all this is going on inside the Free Shop – outside the shop door Food 4 Kids is happening – helping, giving, “clothing” in another way.

We are so fortunate to have such ministries at CHS. I am convinced that what you receive is far greater than what you give in the Free Shop!

Volunteers ARE GREATLY NEEDED in the Free Shop – work just one day per month - Mondays – Noon to 3 or Wednesdays – 10 to 1. The new schedule (September 2019 to August 2020) is being composed THIS MONTH – PLEASE consider working and call now to add your name to the loyal & faithful list of FREE SHOP volunteers.

Sharyn Laughton – 508 255 7277 – artoff@comcast.net

The Free Shop is gratefully accepting your donations of CLEAN summer clothing.

HOLIDAY BAZAAR UPDATE— Sue Sasso & Priscilla Isner SAVE THE DATE!!!!

The CHS Holiday Bazaar will be on Saturday November 2nd from 9-3. We have been successful in getting leaders for all of the CHS “booths”/tables. THANK YOU!!! In the Fall we will be putting out requests for volunteers to help at the Bazaar and also to help make or donate items for the various CHS “departments”. In the meantime, you can save those special items you no longer use or want for the Attic Treasures, books you’ve enjoyed for the Used Book room, used jewelry—costume and fine, food donations—make your jams, jellies, chutney or other tasty items when produce is plentiful and then think about donations for the cookie walk and food table. If you want to know how you can help, please contact Sue Sasso at 508-255-1732 or by email at susansasso@hotmail.com and stay tuned for more updates.

FOOD FOR KIDS - Brenda Ridgeway and Anne Koehler+

During our peak week of July 15 when all 15 sites were up and running we were preparing, packing and delivering more than 600 lunches a day! We could not have accomplished that then ... and every other day ... without our marvelous staff and our many generous and committed volunteers! Thank you!

And we extend another big Thank you! for the generous support we have received from the communities we serve. The USDA funds about 70-75% of Food 4 Kids operation through the Summer Food Service Program. But without the financial support of others we would not be able to continue our program each summer. Already this summer we have received generous grants/funding from: Cape and Islands United Way, Cape Cod 5, Project Bread/CNOP, Seamen's Bank, Harbor for Healing, Church of the Holy Spirit - Orleans, The Federated Church - Orleans, First Parish - Brewster, St. Peter's Lutheran - Harwich, The Town of Chatham, The Town of Eastham, The Town of Orleans, The Town of Provincetown, and individuals like you.

August finds us "winding down" as our sites begin to close after the 9th and the last ones close on the 23rd. When we add it all up, we're sure we'll find it was another great summer for Food 4 Kids!

42nd ANNUAL HOLIDAY ANTIQUES SHOW AND SALE - SAVE THE DATES!

Plans are again underway for the 42nd Annual Antiques Show and Sale to be held on Friday, November 29th, from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. and on Saturday, November 30th, from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. in the Parish Hall. There will be 25 dealers from the New England area offering you a wide range of choice antiques to choose from, including 18th and 19th century furniture, nautical items, Staffordshire china, ironstone, early American pattern glass, jewelry, Americana, brass candlesticks, vintage post cards, chocolate and ice cream moulds, primitives, textiles, quilts, folk and fine art. We have begun our advertising for this wonderful show. You have received a letter asking for your support of this long-standing fundraiser for our parish. We hope that you will be a PATRON of this show that has been such a tradition here at the Church of the Holy Spirit. Monies raised at this annual event are used to support our parish programs. Please join us. If you have any questions or wish to volunteer to help make this show a success, please contact me at (508) 255-8819. Thank you for your support! Debbie Meguerdichian, Chair.

READING FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH ON TUESDAY MORNINGS Sandy Marshall

COME JOIN US! Our reading group meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month in the Parish Library from 10 am to noon to discuss books we have chosen that relate to our spiritual journeys. On September 3rd we will begin to discuss Holy Envy by Barbara Brown Taylor, an Episcopal priest who, while teaching a college course on the New Testament, is surprised by her discovery of God in the many non-Christian religions in the world.

Our time together includes worship and “checking in” on what’s going on in our lives while nurturing our spiritual gardens, weeds included! If you would like to join us call Sandy Marshall, 508-255-9971 or svm2@comcast.net.

A “Safari of a Lifetime to Tanzania” is in the planning stages. Cheryl Kyle,

In 2020, Cheryl Kyle from The Church of the Holy Spirit, and Karen Royce, from Christ Church Greenwich, CT will be leading another safari. The group will depart from the USA Thursday, October 8, 2020 and return Wednesday, October 21, 2020.

Highlights of the trip include enjoying the grandeur and natural beauty of Tanzania; worshiping with fellow Christians; experience feast of spirituality, music and local customs; wildlife viewing at Tarangire National Park, Arusha National Park, Ngorongoro Crater, and the Serengeti; visit Oldupai Gorge, site of the oldest humanoid remains.

We will be staying in a selection of beautiful luxury accommodations for a first class safari experience; visit and contribute your talents to Endupoto Primary School, “a miracle in the bush”, and Oljoro Secondary School (both schools are supported by CHS and located in the Maasai Steppe). If you are interested or have any questions please give Cheryl a call, 949-375-1660 . Sign up is already underway at Christ Church Greenwich.

PRAYER SHAWLS LOOKING FOR HOMES

Thanks to the response to our appeal for prayer shawls, we now have a good supply of shawls in the church office for delivery to a parishioner or friend who would find comfort in a warm shawl. People who are ill or dealing with loss find our shawls give them such a warm sense of peace when they need it most. They are beautifully knitted by parishioners, are designed for both men and women and have been blessed by Father Adam. If you would like to pick up a shawl, stop by the parish office during business hours and Debbi will help you. If you have any questions call Sandy Marshall, 508 255 9971 or svm2@comcast.net.

NEW CHS MINISTRY OF INTERCESSORY PRAYER

In place of the former Prayer Chain, a new ministry, "Intercessors," has been established. It will be a small group of current, fully active members of CHS. The Intercessors will continue the functions of the former Prayer Chain. They will also meet, as a group, to pray together. Plans are being developed to also have Intercessors be available to pray in person with people who wish it, either before or after some of our regular worship services.

Intercessors ministry has its own e-mail: intercessors@chsorleans.org

All who have prayer requests may e-mail them at this address. Or you may contact Adam+ or Gail+, who will then submit your request to the group. We stress that Intercessors is committing itself to full discretion.

We are continuing with the weekly Blue Sheet public Prayer List, which we encourage you to also use for your prayer requests.

FIRST EMAILED GIVING STATEMENTS SENT

In July we sent out Giving Statements for the period January 1 – June 30, 2019. For the first time we sent most, 126, by email! The remaining 40 we printed out and sent by traditional mail. Those sent by traditional mail included statements for everyone who currently receives this newsletter that way, as well as a few that we do not have an email for the "primary" person in the household. If you expected a statement and did not receive one, please let Steve Koehler, Treasurer, know by contacting the Church Office.

SCAMS

A number of us received an e-mail that looked like it had been sent by Adam+, professing an emergency situation that required "a favor" that involved money.

Please be assured that neither Adam+, nor Gail+, nor anyone at the Church of the Holy Spirit will ever send you an e-mail asking for any sort of financial help.

Very sadly such scams, whether they be via e-mail, telephone calls or someone at your door, are not at all uncommon. Such scams have become a multi-billion dollar business and too often the victims are senior citizens.

Please be very wary and if you find yourself being persuaded by something, check it out with a trusted friend or family member. We all want to be kind, generous people and that is exactly what these predators are counting on.

This article has a lot more information and helpful suggestions about this problem:
