"Going to the Son"

Three Holy Spirit young people; Katie Bragdon. Jess Kimball and Joy Pye went to Montana on retreat this past summer with family and Fr. Adam and Lori Linton.

A writing from one of the young participants:

On the trip to Montana, I didn't just find serenity in nature but I found it in myself. I realized how much more there was to life when I had to leave part of my life behind. From the hikes, to the hummingbirds, to the water lapping on the shore: going to Montana changed my life. The mountains were amazing and being with loving people, surrounded by the beautiful earth, created an atmosphere for me that I wouldn't trade for anything in this world.

Thank you Fr. Adam and Lori for leading this retreat!

"Little Ups"

Wonder stories from the children of Holy Spirit

A 4 year old child gave us the name of this column in Church School several years ago when he said "If you are a grown up then we are little ups"

On the 1st Sunday of Church School the young "Godly Play" class (preschool to 2nd grade) was listening to the whole story of the life of Jesus. The telling of the whole story with wooden figures sets the sacred space for listening. All the stories during the church school year now fit into the "Wonder stories" from the Bible which Jesus and his followers have written. At the conclusion of the story as Joan McFadden held up the figures of Jesus on the cross with arms outstretched and the baby Jesus lying in the manger with arms outstretched, a six year old child said with much exclamation !!!! "You mean they are the same person!?"

A wonder moment for all the children. Do you have wonder moments when you are doing holy listening? This happens each Sunday morning in Church School and upstairs in the big church as the children call it! Our blessed lives are fed by these moments and they help us all to live each day with gratefulness to God for all our children. We will celebrate all God's children at the "Children's Sabbath" Sunday October 19, 2014 at the 10:00 a.m. service and after at the coffee hour! See you there!
