TOGETHER

Dear Friends,

As we pass the midpoint of Lent and look forward to the joy of Easter, I would like to highlight the three major services of Holy Week, called the “Triduum”—from the Latin for the “Three Days”: Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil. These are the very heart of our whole worship year, and this year, we are undertaking special efforts to increase participation. With all my heart, I’m encouraging every member, every household, to attend as much of the whole Triduum as possible. Please build it into your schedules.

On April 18, the Maundy Thursday Liturgy, with the Foot-washing, Agape Supper, and Eucharist will be held in the Parish Hall, beginning at 6:00 p.m. This year, we are especially stressing that young people participate in this service with their families. The Agape Supper is a real, full meal. Because of this, it will be very helpful that you sign up. You may do so by e-mailing office@chsorleans.org or by signing up on the bulletin board in the Reception Room. Signing up soon would be much appreciated. While this Eucharist will be held in the Parish Hall, after we conclude there, we will then process to the church for the Stripping of the Altar.

On April 19, the Liturgy of Good Friday will be held in the church, beginning at 5:00 p.m. Please note that we are purposefully changing the start-time of this service. In the past, all three Triduum services began at 7:00 p.m. which is late enough to make attendance difficult for a good number of our seniors. Perhaps this is part of why, in spite of much good effort for this service, Good Friday attendance at The Church of the Holy Spirit historically has been rather low for a congregation of our size. But of all days, I believe it is truly important that we gather as a whole Parish on Good Friday. I’d also stress that we have significantly “re-imagined” this service. It’s now simpler, starker, more meditative, and—as many have remarked—very powerful. (And I’d also mention that while we’re careful with the length of all the Triduum services, Good Friday is the shortest of the three.) Also to be highlighted, prior to the 5:00 p.m. service in church, we will gather in the Parish Hall to offer a Good Friday Labyrinth Walk.

And at last, on Saturday, April 20, the Vigil and First Eucharist of Easter will be held in Church, at 7:00 p.m. As I’ve said before, if I had to pick one of all our worship services which comes closest to “saying it all,” this would be it! The service begins in the dark, with the kindling of the New Fire and the lighting of our historic coronas. We hear Scriptures which tell us, again, the great story of our salvation. We renew our Baptismal Vows. And then: The Easter Proclamation, full lighting, and the most joyous First Eucharist of Easter. (There will also be 8:00 and 10:00 services on Easter Sunday morning, along with an Easter Egg Hunt and Youth Easter Brunch following the 10:00 service.)

For all of the Triduum services, our Music Minister and Choir will have worked very hard to prepare music of great beauty and power. Many others, as well, put in faithful effort that our Triduum be an offering of excellence and a deeply nourishing witness for all who participate.

So, in the Name of our great God and Savior, and in the name of our congregation, please make this year’s “Triduum” a special part of your Lent and Easter celebrations... Come! I trust that you will be richly blessed. And by coming, you also will be a blessing — for the fellow members our congregation and also for all whom the Spirit may lead to share these most holy days with us in this special place we call The Church of the Holy Spirit.

Yours in Christ Jesus: our Crucified and Risen Lord,
Adam+

LADIES' LUNCHEON - SEE YOU 12:00 Noon — Thursday April 4th Fay Cole

Twelve brave ladies came in from the cold for our March 7th Ladies Luncheon. We talked and laughed, exchanged news and plans and had a thoroughly good time.

We practically filled A Baby Center's bassinet with diapers and other baby gifts as our special outreach.

The committee for our April 4th meeting is: Ginny Lucil, chips; Betsy Mason, 1/2 & 1/2 and lemon; Georgia Schneider, juice; Susan Owens, paper goods; Joan Proctor, Table Decoration. We thank Diana Crighton for her March dessert and in April, we will enjoy again our gift of Klondike Bars.

YOUTH SUNDAY

CHS ARTIST OF THE MONTH— Pia Cristina Mackenzie

Once again, I am sharing my latest batch of collage images. These are pieces that I have been working on since last September. The central theme is the psalms, hymns of praise, a sense of wonder at God's love and his creation. As in the work I have shown earlier, the images are not necessarily symbolic, but traditional Christian iconography does slip in. A few relate to Adam's+ favorite icon (like Gail's+ new quilt!) of Abraham's Hospitality or the Old Testament Trinity. Some are more literal, showing all the beasts of the deep and the air "praising the Lord and magnifying him forever". I think this work is an artistic response to the phrase 'Make a Joyful Noise unto the Lord!'

I am hoping to finish a couple of new oil paintings as well...my first in several years. Two are based on collages in the show but, one may be my attempt at fulfilling a request from Adam+: "Have you ever thought of making a piece about the Transfiguration?"

I will have cards for sale but they may be older ones if I don't manage to get some made from the new work while pushing to finish creating!

CHS HEALTH MINISTRIES— Ann Pike-Paris and Meg Nemitz, co-chairs

This month's topic: What is Occupational Therapy?

According to The American Occupational Therapy Association, Occupational Therapy is an evidence-based practice deeply rooted in science.

Occupational therapists enable people of all ages to live life to its fullest by helping them promote health, and prevent injury, illness, or disability.

Occupational therapy includes purposeful and meaningful interventions, helping people recovering from injury to regain skills, providing support for older adults experiencing physical and cognitive changes, helping individuals with mental health issues and helping children with disabilities to participate fully in school and social situations. The goal is to achieve the highest level of independence possible

READING FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH ON TUESDAY MORNINGS Sandy Marshall

Our group is currently reading The Delight of Being Ordinary by Roland Murillo, an entertaining and spiritually uplifting novel. We meet the first and third Tuesday of each month in the Parish Library from 10 a.m. to noon to discuss books related to our spiritual journeys. Our time together includes worship and “checking in” on what’s going on in our lives while nurturing our spiritual gardens, weeds included! Come join us .

A mere “thank you” can never be enough for the love I’ve received from the parish during the weeks since my knee replacement surgery in February. Shared dinners, errands, cards and visits are almost too numerous to mention, but most of all I am deeply thankful for the warmth of prayers which carried me through the difficult days and long nights.

In return - heartfelt thanks and blessings. - Dilys Smith

ALTAR FLOWER DONATIONS— Marty Williams

As we enter the Easter Season, our Altar Flower Guild will resume creating wonderful altar flower arrangements for our weekend services. Have you picked up an Altar Flowers Request Card at one of the church entrances?. For a donation of $50, flowers will be purchased and arranged for your chosen weekend by the Flower Guild. You may choose to do this to remember someone or perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary/ birthday.

The name of the loved one(s) being honored will be noted in the service bulletins of the weekend services of the chosen date.

Questions or want to join our Altar Flower Guild? Contact Marty Williams at 508-255-8730.

ABOUT US

In the April 2017 edition of Together, one of the “About Us” members featured was Rich Weeks. He and wife Tracy have been long time members of a Good Friday Walk fund raising organization, United People for Kids. So during this Lent and Easter month, his story is worth repeating.

Rich started worshipping at Holy Spirit in 1984. His spiritual journey includes the positive impact attending a Cursillo Weekend had on his life and future. It was a spiritually and emotionally renewing experience. He also met Mike Luegers and Fran McEndree, then active members of CHS, and Father G. David White was the overall spiritual leader of the weekend.

It was through the post weekend encouragement of these people that Rich decided to “give CHS a try.” He had not found a Cape Cod parish in the Roman Catholic tradition that nurtured him and his growing family (wife plus three children). The people of CHS were warm, friendly and welcoming. Parishioners “lived their faith,” not just went to church on Sundays. The vibrant youth group and music program were all part of the inclusiveness that Holy Spirit provided and kept them coming.

One morning in 1985, a CHS member and neighbor of theirs, Debbie Bombanti, was collecting petition signatures from members of Lower Cape churches to request the Nauset School System be closed on Good Friday. Her daughter was given a zero on a quiz because she missed school to attend Good Friday services. It must have worked. Currently, while the Nauset School District calendar does not specifically list being closed on “Good Friday,” the district’s spring vacation week occurs during what we know as “Holy Week,” ergo closed on Good Friday!

In 1986, a group of Cape Cod Christians gathered to honor Jesus outside the traditional church services. Their first gathering at the Eastham Methodist Church was a mime play called “The Toymaker’s Son,” a melding of the Pinocchio story and Jesus’ sacrifice. As a result of this effort and working with other local churches, the next year (1987) the Good Friday Walk fund raiser began as a reminder of Christ’s walk to Calvary. It was decided that this coalition of people should have its own identity and adopted the name “United People for Kids” ... aka UP for Kids and is now a recognized non-profit organization.

Since its inception, the Good Friday Walk with UP for Kids has raised roughly $250,000. The first beneficiary of the funds was a young child in Provincetown dying of cancer. Some of the funds raised was given to the family to defray his medication costs and was able to keep him alive for another 6 months. Since then, over 100 families with special needs children on Cape Cod have benefited as well as all the workers and walkers who make this special journey every Good Friday.

Details of the 2019 Walk and how you can help are below.

In closing, we end with Rich’s 2017 witness of his faith... God Bless you, Rich.

I can’t speak for how God works in the lives of others... each person has their own story of their faith journey. Some may use the words kismet or serendipity, but this I know. When I take a halting step towards HIM, HE takes my hand and guides me along. When I take a little peak, HE opens my eyes to behold his beauty. When I open my mind to God, there is a clarity and calmness. When I pray, I do find answers. And when I open my heart, it is flooded with an overwhelming love that is hard not to share with others, and a gratitude that can never measure up to all that God has given me. Amen.

NAUSET INTERFAITH ASSOCIATION (NIA)

GOOD FRIDAY ECUMENICAL SERVICE

The annual Good Friday Ecumenical Service will take place at 12:00 NOON on Good Friday, April 19th at the Brewster Baptist Church on route 6A. The service will be about one hour long and will include seven brief 3 to 5 minute reflections by clergy or lay leaders from some of our 20 member congregations. There will be an ecumenical choir anthem. This is an opportunity to worship with friends from other traditions expressing our common identity in the loving passion and death of our Messiah Jesus.

STONE SOUP SUPPER

What does it mean to be part of an interfaith community? Will 'breaking bread' together help us to better understand our common bonds of love and justice? We sure need that in our country today! Elizabeth Alexander (who gave the inaugural poem for President Obama) says, "Critical thinking develops when you go outside of your comfort zone and eat a different bread from the one you grew up with."

The Supper will be at Church of the Holy Spirit on Tuesday, April 30th from 5 to 8 pm. There will be groups of 6-8 people from several different congregations, each group will bring a salad, entrée, and dessert. If you are interested in being one of the folks from Holy Spirit please contact Ken Campbell+ at ksbcampbell5050@gmail.com or 413-478-5719.

For more information contact Dr. Sharon Leder at Sharon.teichmangallery@gmail.com or 914-204-4487.

WHAT WE DO MATTERS

Three events to learn, remember, take action. Sponsored by Nauset Interfaith and the Interfaith Group on the Holocaust, Genocide and Human Rights.

The State of Hate, 29 April, 7 PM at Nauset Regional Middle School A presentation by Robert Trestan of the Anti-Defamation League "Moving Toward An Inclusive Cape Cod"

Sharing Stories from Rwanda, 1 May 7 PM at Saint Joan of Arc Church, Carl Wilkins, the author of "I'm Not Leaving" will speak of his experience in Rwanda during the 1994 genocide.

Holocaust Memorial Service, 2 May 7 PM, Nauset Regional Middle School, Film, "One Survivor Remembers," candle lighting with students from our regional schools.

Education for Ministry (EfM)

We are a group of people questing for knowledge and traveling a journey of faith exploration together. We follow the EfM curriculum from the Episcopal School of Theology at the University of the South in Sewanee, TN that was developed to provide participants with knowledge and confidence as we live into our call to follow Christ. We meet for a seminar for just over three hours each week, for 36 weeks, September through May. We have wonderful discussions on the information we have read concerning the Hebrew Scriptures, the New Testament, Church History and Theology and the new insights we have gained. The goal of all the studying, reflecting and discussing is to grow in our awareness of God's movement and purpose in our lives. We laugh and occasionally cry together and grow in a community of love, faith and understanding.

EfM has a long history at the Church of the Holy Spirit and is hoping to expand its membership for next year. If you have ever thought about joining or would like more information, we'd love to talk to you. Feel free to contact any present or past member (there are a lot of them) or the Mentors listed below.
