CHS GALLERY: Featured in the CHS Gallery for the month of January is the art/craft of Hedy (Hedwig) O'Hara - 1936 – 2010 curated by Richard O'Hara. Hedy's art consisted primarily of paint on metal or wood. In this show, you will see a braided rug she made and a painted gourd that grew in her garden that is now a heron looking for a small fish in her pond. Hedy sold her art from her shop in the barn at Brick Hill Farm in East Orleans and at art shows at CHS and the Lower Cape. Hedy also gave away as much of her artwork as she sold. All anyone had to say was, "I love your work but just can't afford it at this time," Then you went home with real art in your arms as a gift from Hedy. Please note that this is a showing of Hedy's work, but at this time, nothing is for sale. If you might be interested in purchasing something in the future, tell Richard and he will talk with the family.
